

The American Revolution

1763-1783

Discussion Questions

- a. According to the first essay, what was truly revolutionary about the American Revolution?
- b. In the first essay, which revolutions were inspired by the American Revolution that were discussed by the author? (Special Note: French Indochina is known today as Vietnam.)
- c. According to the second essay, what were the consequences of the American Revolution?
- d. How did the American Revolution change both social expectations and inspire more people to have an interest in the political process?
- e. In the second essay, what were the truly radical ideas that were inspired by the American Revolution?

Big Ticket Item

What were the most important fundamental changes that were ushered in by the American Revolution from 1763-1783?