

AP United States History

Unit Two– Colonization and Settlement 1607-1754

Topic: Colonial Society and Culture- Part 2 of 3

a. From 1700-1775, what happened to the American population? Where did most of the population live? Which colonies were the most populous? Which cities were the most populous? (pg. 78)

b. Analyze the extent to which the following immigrant groups would have an impact upon the development of a distinctive American character and one which was increasingly becoming antagonistic to the British government. (pgs. 79-80)

* Germans

* Scots-Irish

c. What would account for the differences between the development of slavery in the Lower South versus the Chesapeake and the northern colonies? How did African slaves create a distinctive African-American culture of their own during this period of time? (pgs. 80-81)

d. By 1775, what was the structure of colonial society? What led to the stratification of colonial society in the years leading up to the American Revolution? (pgs. 84-85)

e. Evaluate to the extent that each of the professions were held in high regard by the colonists during the period: (pg. 85)

* Clerics

* Physicians

* Lawyers

SAQ Prompt:

Analyze the impact that immigration would have on the growth of the colonies and the development of a distinctive American character during the period from 1700-1775. Address the impact of each of the following groups:

* Germans

* Scots-Irish

* African Slaves